

SABIT GROUP PROGRAM
HOSPITAL ADMINISTRATION
AUGUST 18 – SEPTEMBER 15, 2007

DELEGATE BIOGRAPHIES

ARMENIA

Inna Persoyan, OB/GYN Department Head
Medical Center MALATIA
Yerevan, Armenia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

The MALATIA Medical Center, founded in 1965, is a recently privatized medical hospital. The Center offers a range of services for outpatient and inpatient care, wellness promotion, and 24-hour emergency services. As Head of the Women's Health Department, Dr. Persoyan's responsibilities include management, education, budgeting, administration and business development. She hopes to learn more about emerging technologies and medical equipment available in American hospitals.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Inpatient and outpatient treatment
- Advanced medical equipment and technology
- Hospital management structure

Sergey Poghosyan, Director
Republican Medical Center
Yerevan, Armenia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

Established in 1968, the Republican Medical Center is a private hospital, which offers a range of specialized services. The center also functions as the clinical base for the Yerevan Medical University and the National Institute of Health for the Republic of Armenia. Dr. Poghosyan, who oversees the administration and organization of ambulatory and polyclinic assistance, hopes to learn American methods of hospital management.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Advanced medical equipment and technology
- Relations between hospitals and insurance companies
- Control of technological materials

AZERBAIJAN

Aygun Babayeva, Deputy Medical Director
MediClub
Baku, Azerbaijan
English Capability: Good

Company Description:

MediClub, an emergency medical service center, is the first privately owned medical service company registered in Azerbaijan. They operate facilities in Baku, Ganja, Kurdamir, Primorsk, and Ali-Bayramli. As Deputy Medical Director, Dr. Babayeva oversees the administrative coordination of twelve departments. While in the United States, she hopes to learn how American clinical training programs are structured.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Relations between healthcare organizations and federal agencies
- Education and training of personnel
- Quality and services improvement

GEORGIA

George Kamkamidze, Clinical Director
Research and Rehabilitation Center REA
Tbilisi, Georgia
English Capability: Fluent

Company Description:

The REA Center, established in 1980, is a private organization, which provides services to patients suffering with chronic diseases. The center has been involved in many research initiatives including projects investigating HIV and Hepatitis C. Dr. Kamkamidze wants to learn about modern hospital management and technology. In addition, he hopes to develop collaborative relationships with American universities and companies.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Insurance services
- Rehabilitation services

David Mikeltadze, Executive Director
Cardiac Surgery Clinic
Tbilisi, Georgia
English Capability: Some

Company Description:

The privately owned Cardiac Surgery Clinic, established in 2001, provides heart surgery, bypass grafting and vascular surgery, among other services. They have worked closely with doctors from Switzerland and Israel. Dr. Mikeltadze oversees all 68 clinical staff and wants to learn about the organization and management of American hospitals.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Relations between hospitals and private companies
- Hospital management structure
- Business plan development

Mariam Odisharia, Social Rights Expert
Health and Social Affairs Committee, Georgian Parliament
Tbilisi, Georgia
English Capability: Some

Company Description:

The Health and Social Affairs Committee is engaged in the reorganization and restructuring of healthcare in Georgia. The Committee functions as an integral element of the Georgian legislature and works to protect the health of the national population. Dr. Odisharia serves as a specialist on the Committee and advises members of Parliament. She is eager to learn about the services and technologies available in the American healthcare sector.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Insurance company structure
- Insurance services
- Accounting systems, cost management

Tamaz Gvenetadze, Surgeon, Head of Continuing Ed.
Gudushauri National Medical Center
Tbilisi, Georgia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

The publicly held National Medical Center was established in 2003. They offer a variety of services including surgery, internal medicine and traumatology, among others. Dr. Gvenetadze works as both a surgeon and head of postgraduate education in the General Surgery Department and the Learning Resource Center respectively. In these roles, he is responsible for performing surgeries and organizing training programs. He hopes to incorporate American techniques in his approach to designing training courses.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Relations between hospitals and private companies
- Emergency ambulance services
- Budget control and management

R U S S I A

Olga Garbuzova, Director
Medical Center PRIMA MEDIKA
Khabarovsk, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This private company, founded in 2005, offers affordable, preventative medical services in an effort to identify and treat illnesses at early stages. To this end, they also coordinate with local companies to provide check-ups at work. Dr. Garbuzova, one of the original founders of PRIMA MEDIKA, currently serves as Director. She hopes to learn more about American approaches to managing private medical businesses.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Business plan development
- Advanced medical equipment of technology

Konstantin Gasilenko, Director
State Hospital
Birobidzhan, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

The State Hospital, founded in 1938, is a specialized medical institution. The hospital's areas of practice include urology, neurology, neurosurgery and intensive care, among others. Dr. Gasilenko serves as Director and his tasks encompass all matters of organization related to the hospital's operations. He hopes to become acquainted with the American approach to hospital management.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Education and training of personnel
- Budget allocation and Associated Laws

Irina Khegay, Deputy Head Physician
Municipal Children's Hospital
Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

Established in 1946, this children's hospital provides services for patients from birth until the age of 18. A staff of 150 doctors and 300 nurses work in nine specialized departments. Dr. Khegay is responsible for clinical work in the in-patient department. Her duties include the organization of medical care for children, facilitating communication between departments and outside the hospital, introducing modern treatment methods and the procurement of medicine.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Quality and services improvement
- Budget control and management

Anatoly Leksin, Director
Sakhalin Medical Care
Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

Sakhalin Medical Care is a modern private clinic, which specializes in pediatrics, but offers services to patients of all ages. They emphasize the importance of technology, and incorporate modern practices into their approach to medicine. Dr. Leksin, who also serves as a City Assembly Deputy, hopes to improve the quality of regional health services through his role as the clinic's director.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Business plan development
- Relations between hospitals and insurance companies

Elena Stolyarova, Head Physician
Regional Hospital
Dolinsk, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

The Dolinsk Regional Hospital functions as part of a larger Municipal Health Organization, which was established in 1946. They offer a comprehensive array of services to a regional population of about 26,000. As Head Physician, Dr. Stolyarova manages 553 personnel. She hopes to consult with American companies regarding the prospect of initiating a program to improve the health of mothers and their children.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Quality and services improvement
- Payroll accounting
- Emergency ambulance services

Olga Tatarinova, Deputy Head Physician
Regional Hospital Emergency Room
Yakutsk, Russia
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This regional hospital's goal is to provide emergency medical aid to a population of about 25,000. Areas of specialization include burns, urgent care and plastic surgery. As Deputy Head Physician, Dr. Tatarinova oversees a staff of about 1,135. She is responsible for the general organization and operation of the hospital. She hopes to learn more about modern equipment used by doctors in American hospitals.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Budget allocation and associated laws
- Medical services

UKRAINE

Sergiy Badogin, Deputy Head Physician
Regional Hospital
Dnepropetrovsk, Ukraine
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This large regional hospital, which was established in 1800, has earned Ukraine's highest accreditation level since 1998. Both government and insurance companies fund operations. In his role as Deputy Head Physician, Dr. Badogin has a special interest in hospital finances. To this end, he hopes to learn how American hospitals develop business plans and work with insurance companies.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Relations between hospitals and private companies
- Budget control and management
- Advanced medical equipment and technology

Valeriy Koba, Head Physician
Central District Hospital
Gorokhov, Ukraine
English Capability: Some

The Gorokhov Central District Hospital is state owned and operated, and provides 24-hour emergency care to the 57,000 residents of the city. Dr. Koba is responsible for the managing and hiring of staff members, as well as equipment and supply purchases. With almost 700 nurses, and 125 physicians, the hospital has a variety of issues with personnel, funding, and equipment. Dr. Koba hopes to learn about medical insurance and hospital finance while here, and also to improve his management techniques.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Financial planning
- Organizational structure and management
- Medical insurance (private and public)

Tetyana Mikhnova, Chairwoman
Medical Center DOBROBUT
Kiev, Ukraine
English Capability: Some

Company Description:

This private medical center was founded in 2001 and boasts facilities in Kiev and Yalta. They are currently planning an ambitious expansion initiative, which includes the establishment of a medical center in Donetsk. Dr. Mikhnova's responsibilities include practical management and financial oversight. She looks forward to learning more about the U.S. health care system in order to contribute to the reformation of care in Ukraine.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Energy efficiency
- Equipment maintenance
- Medical services

Vitalii Ostashko, Deputy Head Physician
City Clinical Hospital #6
Kiev, Ukraine
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This city hospital provides medical care for Kiev and the surrounding region. Twelve departments offer a spectrum of services including surgery, urology, rehabilitation, medicine and physiotherapy. The clinic also functions as a teaching facility and is associated with two medical schools. Dr. Ostashko manages the interaction between various departments and coordinates a Ukraine-South Korea international partnership. He hopes to learn how American doctors approach hospital organization and financing.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Hospital management structure
- Personnel management
- Business plan development

Sergii Siratskyi, Deputy Head Surgeon
Regional Children's Hospital
Nikolaev, Ukraine
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This hospital was created in 1972 and presently serves the needs of nearly half of the Nikolaev region's children. Their areas of practice include neo-natal, surgery, orthopedics, oncology and many others. As a Deputy Head Surgeon, Dr. Siratskyi supervises all surgical departments. He wants to learn more about the American system of medical care in order to influence positive change in the Nikolaev region.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Quality and services improvement
- Budget control and management
- Insurance company structure

Volodymyr Sova, Deputy Chief Medical Officer
Central Children's Hospital
Kiev, Ukraine
English Capability: None

Company Description:

This state-owned hospital was founded in 1963 to provide services for the Golosiivsky district of Kiev. In his role as Deputy Chief Medical Officer, Dr. Sova is responsible for the management of staff, quality control, and introduction of new technology. While in the United States, he hopes to learn more about insurance companies and hospital management techniques.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Insurance company structure
- Relations between doctors and insurance companies
- Hospital management structure

M O L D O V A

Mihail Maniuc, Head of Pediatric Care
State Medical University
Chisinau, Moldova
English Capability: None

Company Description:

The State Medical University, the first school to offer higher medical education in the country, functions as an education and research institute. Faculty departments include general medicine, professional development, pharmaceuticals, and more. The University currently has an enrollment of about 5,500 students and collaborates with 140 other countries. As an Associate Professor at the University, Dr. Maniuc looks forward to teaching his students about contemporary American medical practices.

Main Topics of Interest:

- Control of Technological Materials
- Emergency Ambulance Services
- Relations between Doctors and Insurance Companies

